

BC Summer Reading Club Program
Virtual Comic Camp with Cole Pauls
Registration Open!

July 11-15 (Monday to Friday)
Kids (ages 8 to 11) Camp - 10:00-11:00 am
Tween and Teen (ages 12 to 18) Camp - 1:00-3:00 pm
Online (Teams)

Join graphic novelist Cole Pauls for a week-long virtual workshop. Participants will develop a mini-comic or collaborative comic. Registrants will be invited to collect a package of free Comic Camp supplies at any GVPL branch between July 4 and 9. A supply list will be provided for those who are unable to visit the library.

Cole Pauls is a Tahltan comic artist, illustrator, and printmaker hailing from Haines Junction (Yukon Territory) with a BFA in Illustration from Emily Carr University. In 2017, Pauls won Broken Pencil Magazine's Best Comic and Best Zine of the Year Award for Dakwākāda Warriors II. In 2020, Dakwākāda Warriors won Best Work in an Indigenous Language from the Indigenous Voices Awards.

Registration is required as space is limited; registration closes July 4.

To register: email programs@gvpl.ca with your first name and library card number. Please use the subject line 'Comic Camp with Cole Pauls.'

Note: Personal information will be shared with the presenter for registration purposes only.

This event is made possible in partnership with IslandLink Library Federation.
